

Hammond Harkins Galleries

ANTHONY DAVENPORT (1950-2004)

Born 1950, New York, New York. Early childhood in Honolulu, adolescence in Paris, France.

EDUCATION

- 1979-1983 Three Ohio University Faculty Research Grants
1978-1979 Louis Comfort Tiffany Apprenticeship Grant to study with ceramic Sculptor Claude Horan in Kahalua, Hawaii
May 1977 M.F.A State University of New York at New Paltz.
June 1971 B.A. Architecture, Princeton University
1957-1967 French Education Nationale. Lycee Pasteur, Paris

WORK EXPERIENCE

- 1984 to 2004 Director of Northwood Europe.
1977 to 2004 Art teacher, Ohio University-Lancaster
1981-1984 Artist in Residence for the Ohio Arts Council Artists in Education program.
Summer 1978 Guest Instructor, teaching ceramic mural making and pottery at Greenwich House Pottery, New York, New York.
1976 Instructor, Basic Ceramics, State University of New York, New Paltz.
1971-1973 Draftsman and designer for architects Georges Noel, 6 rue Saint Amand, Paris, and Nicholas Matveef, 1 rue du Faubourg Saint Honore, Paris.